ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. 1 GRAVESHID RACE TRACK, May 30. - Lady patrons of the turf are becoming as familiar with the relative merits and failings of the agile flyers as the men, and will undergo about as many trials to The greater part by the Culver route, and in the pushing on and off the steamer the ladies particularly suffered, many having their dresses torn, hats smashed, and other harm done to their lightcolored spring costumes. The sun shone brightly at the beginning of the racing, but the sky looked threatening around the edges. Betting was lively.

As an unusual number of races were on the programme it was necessary to start them early. They began at 1.90.

Many people did not know that the racing was to begin early, so started for the track accordingly, at 2.50 o'clock the crowd had swelled to immensy proportions. The grand star d was packed, and the space in front of it was black with men. It was impossible to get nearer than seventy-five feet to the pool stands. Many people, to ree the races, had to take up a position in the field hande the course.

the games began.

Officers of the games included George W. Carr, referee; C. H. Mapes, W. C. Davis, W. G. Hageman, Judges; George A. Avery, C. Reed, timers, and it. P. Pike, starter.

The first event of the programme was a 100-yards run. Twenty-three compesitors came to the acratch in the trial hesta. F. Westing, of the Manhattians, won an easy victory and in the hnai heat he won handsomely in 10 2-5 seconds, beating Shipman, of the Columbia College Association, by about three yards. The latter took second place. Shipman had the advantage of a four-yards handlend.

The second event was a mile walk, four lans around the course. W. A. Berrian, of the Manhattans, captured the prize in 7m. 3 1-5s. He had twenty seconds allowance. Lloyd Collis, of the New York Athletic Club, was second. Nine competitors were entered.

New York Athletic Club, was second. Nine competitors were entered.

The two-mile bleycle race was contested by three starters, and was saally won by William Schumacher, of the Long Island Wheelmen, in 6m. 27s.

B. C. Fatchin, of the New York Club, was second. The winner had 120 yards start.

A 440-yard run created great interest. In the first heat nine starters appeared, and, after a lively struggle, E. M. Griswold, of the Yonkers Athletic Club, won in 51s.; G. L. Estes, of the Garden City Athletic Club of Chicago, second. Griswold had twenty-one yards start and Estes eighteen.

The second heat was won by William Schwegler, of the Americau Athletic-Club, in 55 seconds, with thirty yards start; L. L. Betting, of the Staten Island Club, second.

In the mile run, hundicap, T. F. Conneff, of the Manhautans, beat the best American amateur record, with one exception, making the time 4.24. Page did not compete.

First Inning—Brooklyn took the field at 10, 30, and for Cincinnati Nicol faced the man who pitched nine innings against Lousville without allowing that outo a single hit. The batsman retired on a dy to McClellan. Kappel struck out and Fennelly knocked a liner into Orr's hands.
For Brooklyn, Pinkney went out on a dy to right. Carpenier captured McClellan's foul. Orr hit past second for a single. Fennelly's error of Fount's grounder gave the latter first and Orr second, but Smith knocked a dy to centre.

Second inning—For Cincinnati, Rellly hit an easy one, which Terry fielded. Corkhill popped a fly into Smith's nanda and Keenan did the same thing. For Brooklyn, U'Brien made a hit, and then stole second. Terry's sacrace advanced nim to third. Peeples was out at the plate, he trying to come on Hadford's grounder. Had stole second. McClellan was third out, third to firs'. One run, Third Inning—A base on tails, a steal, a sacrifice and one hit gave the Chochmatis one run. It was one, two, three order for the home team in their naif.

Fourth Inning—O'Reilly's two-bagger and Corbally's single yielded Chochmati one run.

Brooklyn in their half of the fourth had two men on bases, with one out, but Smith Iouled the alde out.
